FAQfertility was founded with the aim of helping families to fulfill their desire to have their own children. We put them in touch with those fertility experts who can assist them, primarily with our partners in the USA and Canada. Our sole aim is to support families on their fertility journey, and FAQfertility does not charge any fees. All costs incurred during their fertility trip are paid directly by the families to our partners. FAQfertility has no influence whatsoever on the partners' fees.

The information contained on www.faqfertility.com website (the "Service") is for general information purposes only.

We would like to expressly point out that any information contained on the website does not replace a visit to the doctor. We encourage everyone to discuss all medical questions with a doctor, as the information on our website in no way replaces a visit to a doctor or a consultation with a doctor.

FAQfertility does not carry out any medical treatments. This is only reserved for your doctor and the specialist staff of our partner clinics. Only they make all necessary medical decisions and point out possible risks of a treatment.

Furthermore, we would like to emphasize that it can be an advantage to talk to other providers of fertility clinics and agencies, to compare the service, the offer and the pricing in order to make a good and profound decision.

FAQfertility LLC assumes no responsibility for errors or omissions in the contents of the Service. In no event shall FAQfertility LLC be liable for any special, direct, indirect, consequential, or incidental damages or any damages whatsoever, whether in an action of contract, negligence or other tort, arising out of or in connection with the use of the Service or the contents of the Service. FAQfertility LLC reserves the right to make additions, deletions, or modification to the contents on the Service at any time without prior notice. FAQfertility LLC does not warrant that the website is free of viruses or other harmful components.
